Alright, Ya Guys!

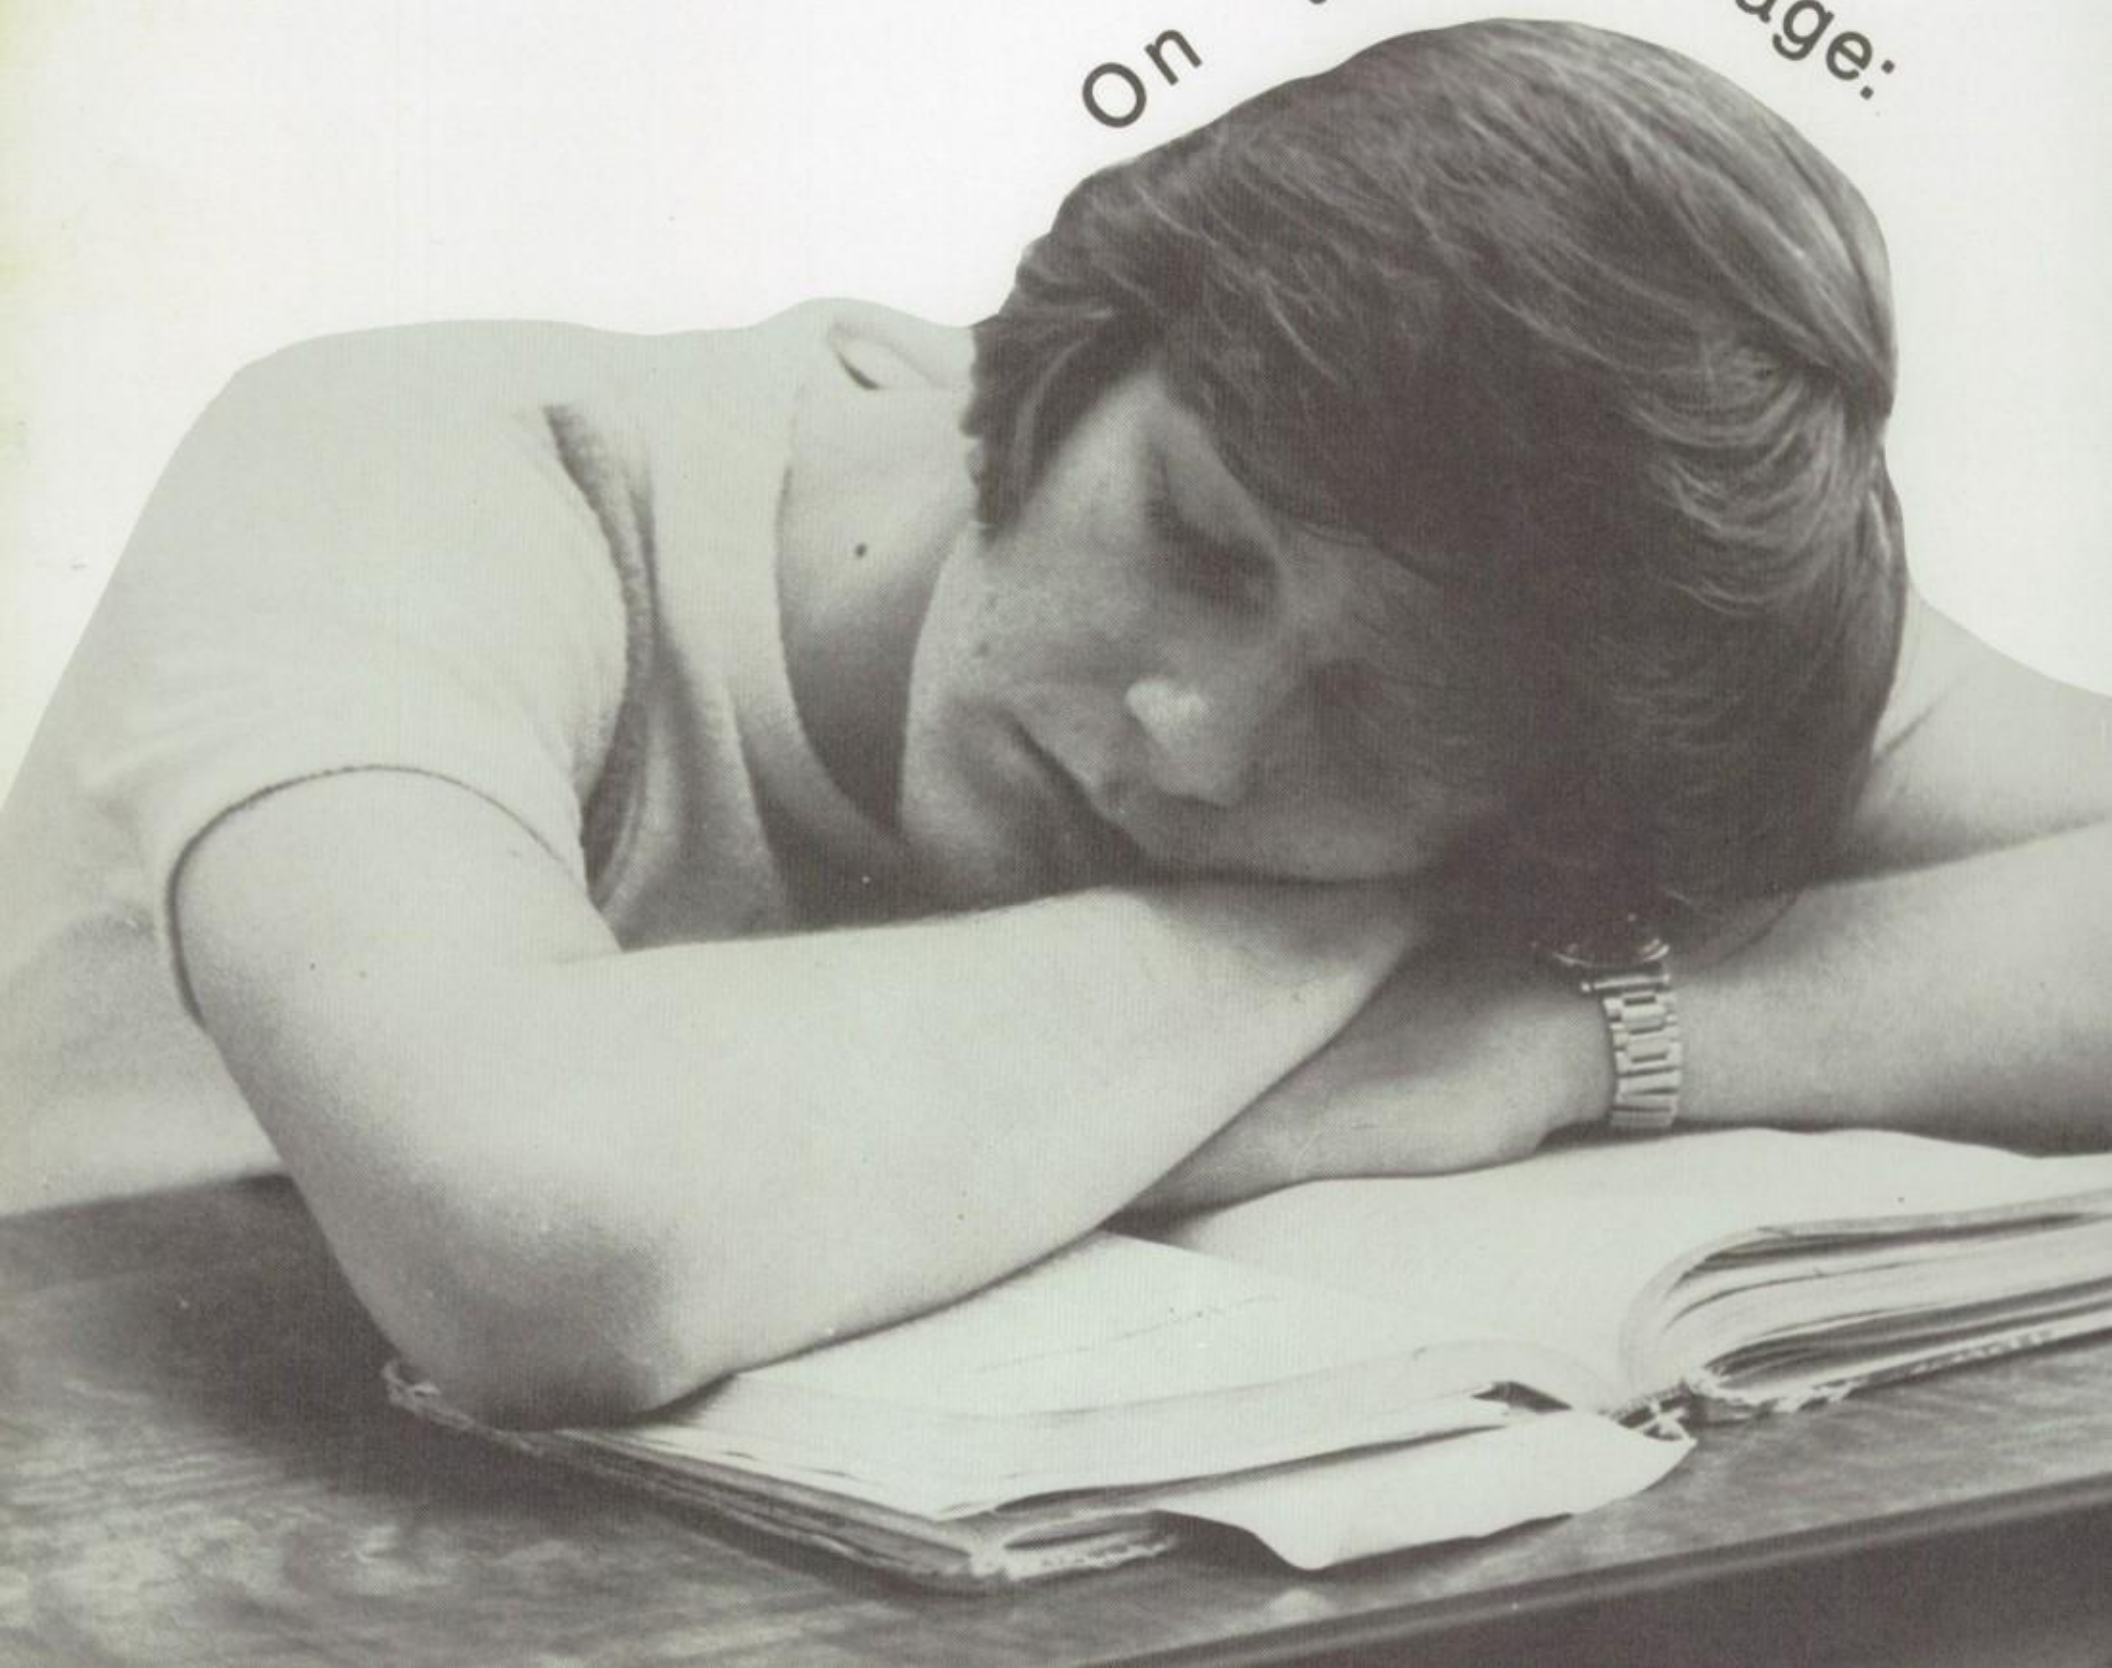
STUFF

The average student (a.s. for short) at Admiral King, loves chocolate ice cream (A.S.) buys his/her lunch, but really despises the food being served. He/she listens to radio station WHMS around the clock, yet doesn't know who Margaret Mead is. (A.S.) doesn't like yogurt, is wild about rock 'n' rol and "nowhere in particular" is where he/she hangs around. (A.S.) plans on college after high school, and in the year 2000, expects to be working at his/her career. (A.S.) really enjoyed the movie, "Smoky and the Band but hated the film "You Light Up My Life". (A.S.) likes to read, and is especially fond of the book, Gone With the Wind. In his/her spare time, (A.S. likes to play at various sports, and exercises everyday. If he/she could change the world, world peace would be the thing (A.S.) would work t bring about. On a scale of 1 to 5, (A.S.) rates Admiral King at 3. In order to improve this rating, he/she would replace some of the teaching staff. (A.S.)'s favorite musical group is Led Zeppelin. (A.S.) is unemployed and does not smoke.

How average are you?

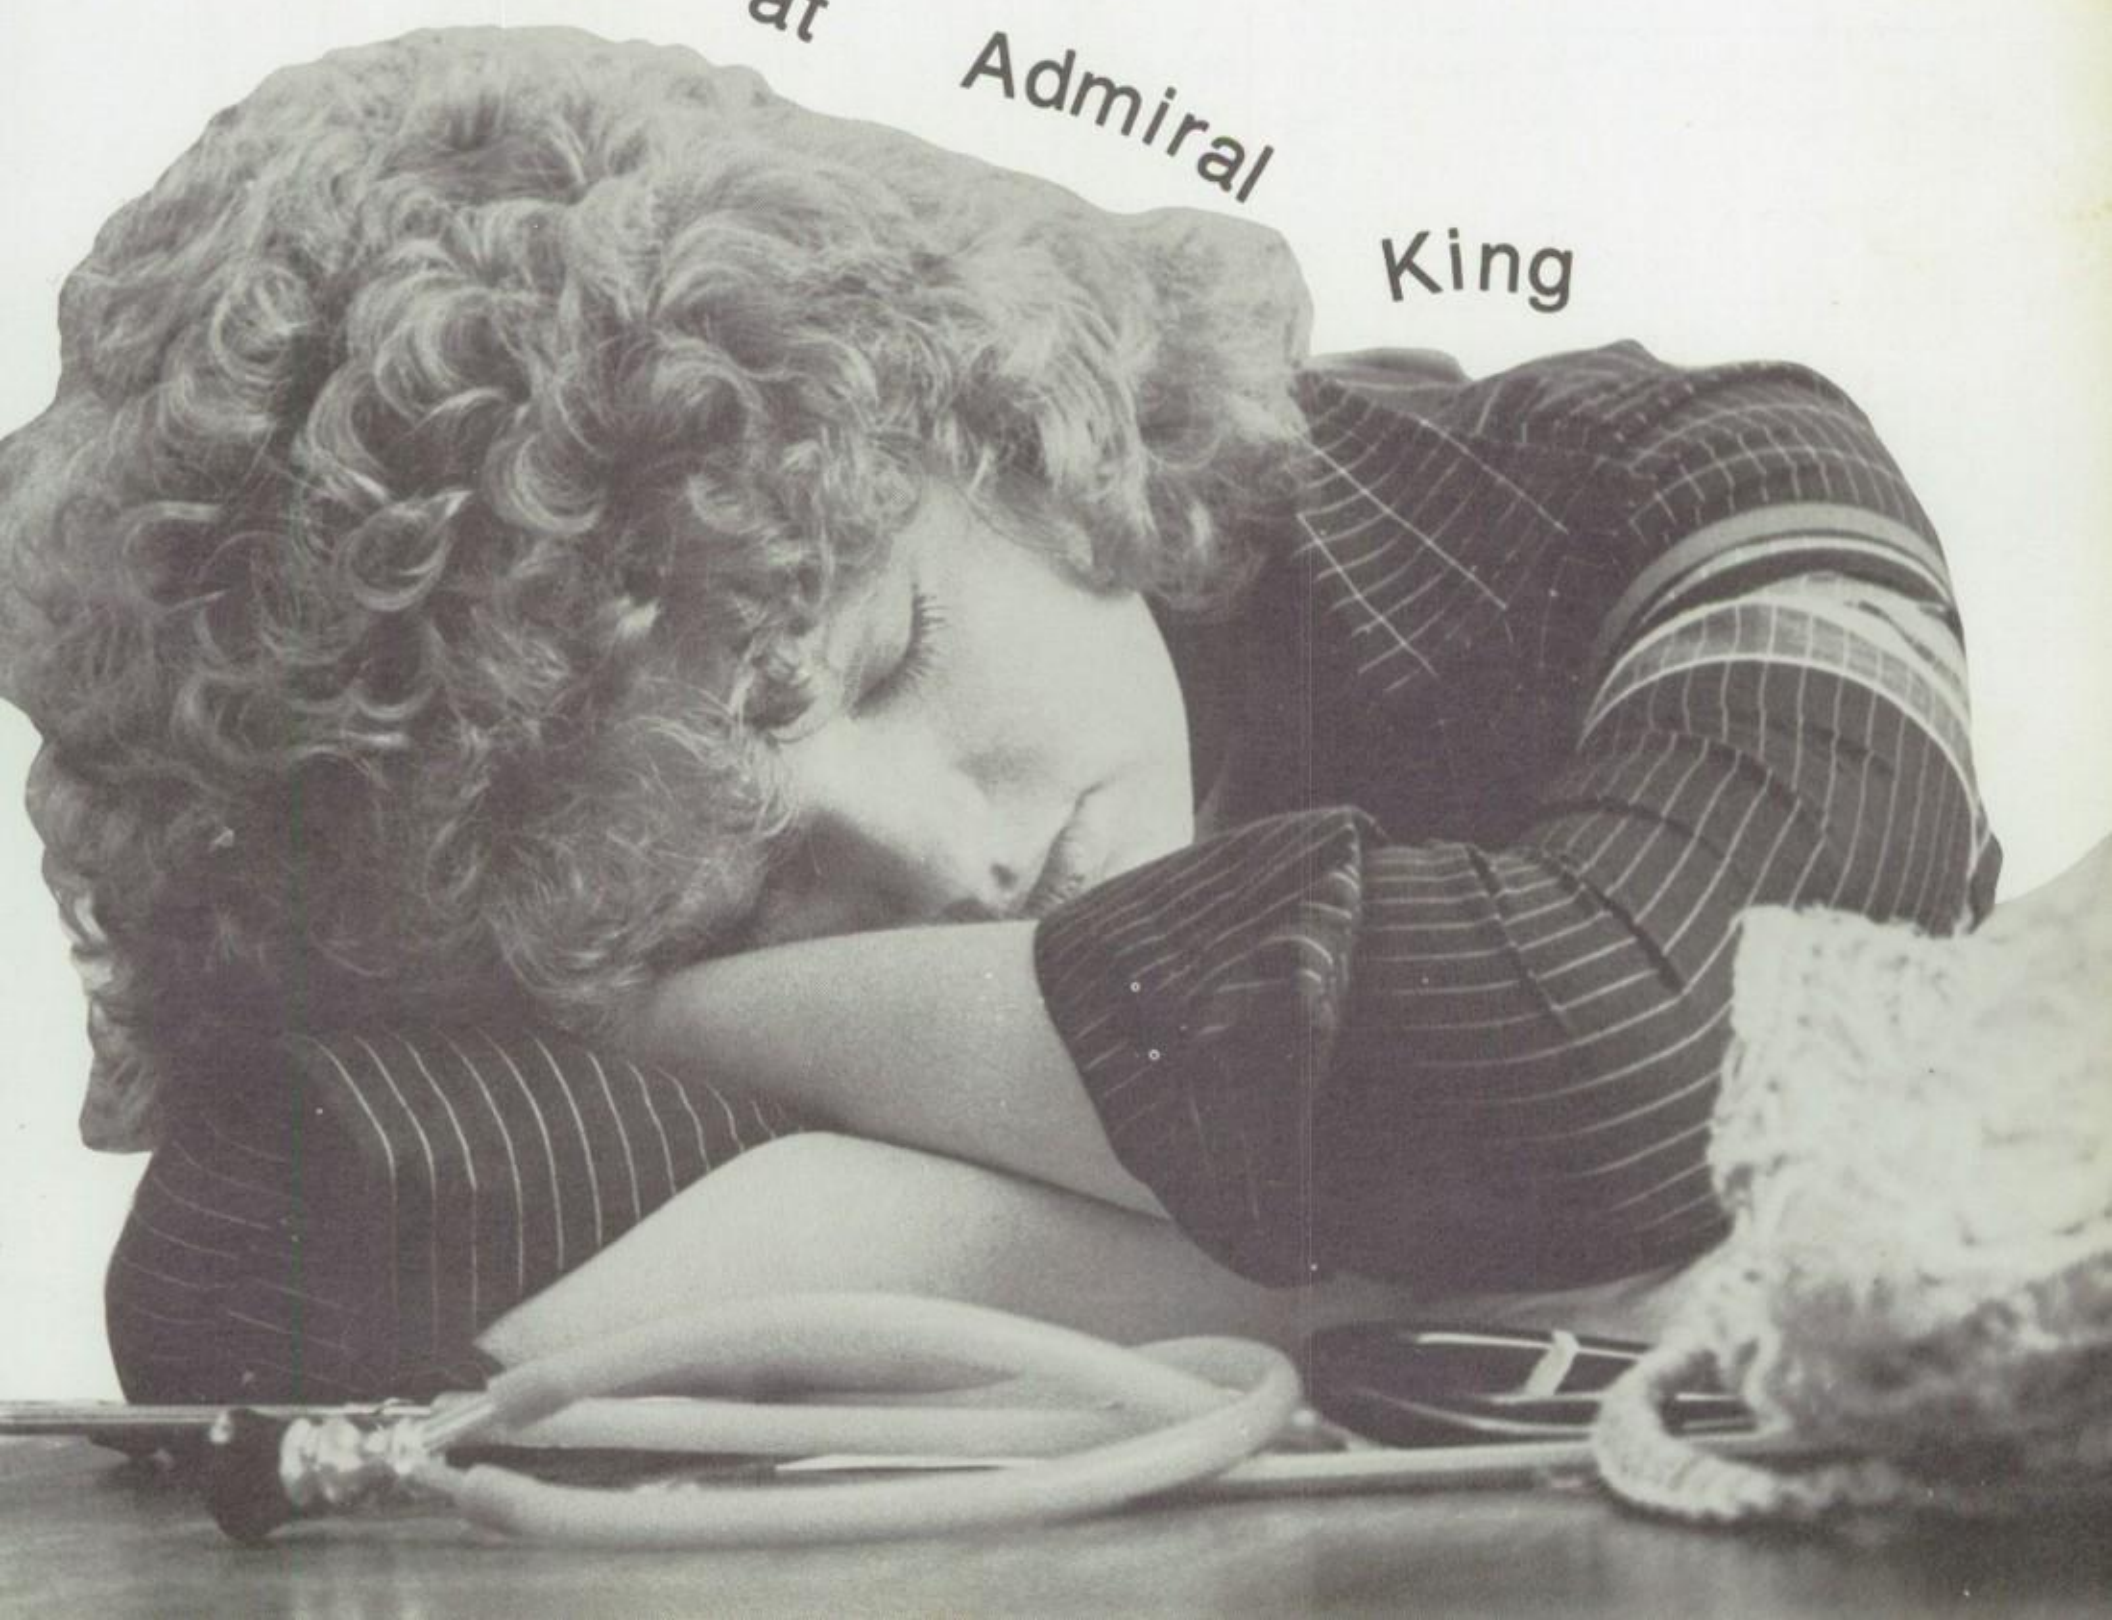


The results of this survey are based upon the responses made by 200 randomly selected Admiral King students. Though hardly conclusive, it is felt that the survey reflects the diversity of feelings and opinions among A.K.H.S. students.)

MAKING CHANGES INSIDE AND OUTSIDE OF A.K.H.S.

Nearly every student who has attended Admiral King has encountered some aspect of the school, deserving of change. Here now, are the suggestions made by the survey's participants:

(1) 20% said that the teaching staff should be altered (2) 11% said many of the rules should be changed (3) 10% said that a change in the administrative staff would be in order (4) 9% felt that class periods should be shortened (5) 8% suggested a change in the menu (6) 6.4% felt that the students should shape up (7) 5% thought a smoking lounge should be added (8) 8% would like an open lunch period (9) 4% would like open study-hall periods (10) 3% were undecided about what improvements could be made (11) 2% opted for a change in the tardy rules, more challenging classes, more dances, a halt to the prison-like atmosphere of the school, or less fighting (12) 1% asked for more interesting classes, and (13) .5% felt that more spirit, more clubs, or better sports equipment would give the school a lift.



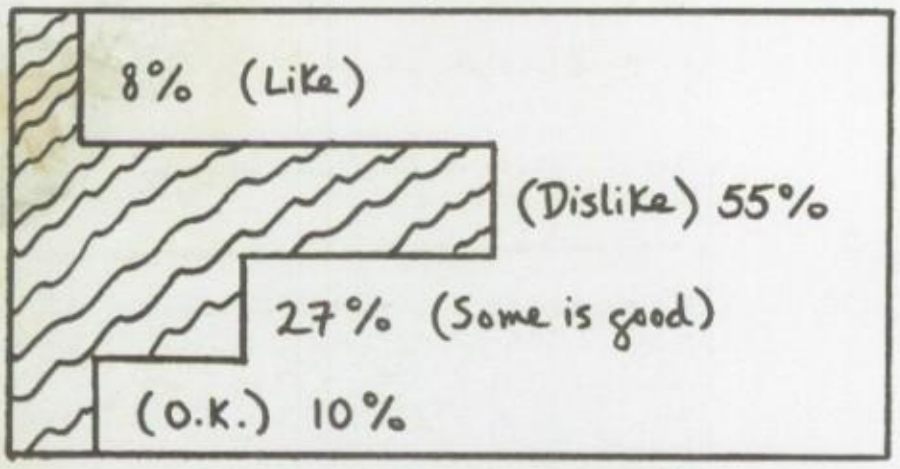
When it comes to the radio dial, 30% of the A.K.H.S. students interviewed said they preferred WMMS, making it the foremost favorite. 14% listen to WZZP, 8.5% to WGCL, 6.75% to WLYT, 6% to WWWM, 4% to WABQ, 1.5% to WLRD, 1% to WGAR, and to WOBL, and .5% to WDOK, to WLEC, to WWWE, and to KDAY (California). 22% of the survey's participants said they liked a variety of stations, while only 2% said they liked none at all.

Survey '78

Yogurt was found to be unappealing to 56% of the students interviewed, 36% definitely liked it, 5% thought it was "O.K.", and 4% admitted to "never (having) tried the stuff."

70% of the students buy their lunch, 12% brown bag it, 10.25% don't eat lunch, 6% do both, 1.5% go out to eat, and .5% either buy or bring, but then, don't eat the food.

BUYING LUNCHES

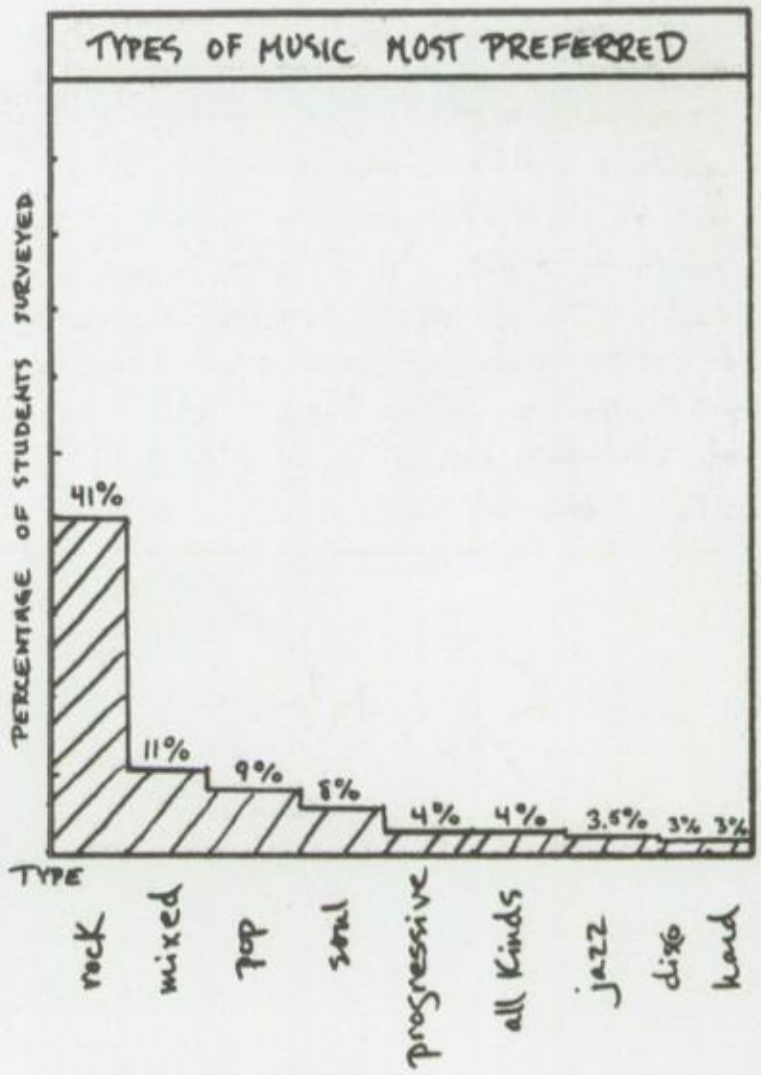


3 Reasons People Gave When They Said They Hated Cafeteria Food:

① "It's fine if you like getting your stomach pumped."

② "It ain't real."

③ "Yech, soybeans!"



According to the survey, Led Zeppelin was the most popular band with A.K.H.S. students. Percentages are as follows:

Led Zeppelin] 19%
Bee Gees]

Pink Floyd
Earth, Wind and Fire] 8%

Fleetwood Mac
Genesis] 4%

Chicago, Steely Dan,
Arrowsmith, Todd
Rundgren, Parliament,
Kiss, Eagles, Heat Wave,
Lynard Skynard] 3%

AWB, Bob Seger, J. Giles,
Styx, Queen] 2%

Kansas, Santana, Wild Cherry
Bruce Springstein] 1%

Illiteracy is not a big concern at A.K.H.S. since 61% of the students questioned said that yes, they like to read. Only 36% said no, and 3% said they like to read sometimes.

Favorite books include:
Animal Farm, The Omen, Serpico, Roots Gone With the Wind, The Shining, The Other Side of Midnight, Rich Man, Poor Man, The Flame and the Flower, and the Bible.

"GIDGET GOES TO HELL"

Linda Pritts, a senior, placed fourth in the Scholastic Writing Awards. Her play, entitled "Gidget Goes to Hell" was one of 20,000 other entries submitted. Congratulations Linda! Below are excerpts from her play . . .

Time: Present
Setting: Desk and revolving chair downstage right facing upstage left. Another revolving chair in front of desk. Red phone and box of cigars on desk. Filing cabinet left side of desk. Large protrait of devil left of cabinet.

Characters
Gidget: All American girl, teenager, wears hair in ponytail, wears one piece red, white and blue bathing suit, chews bubble gum.
Devil: Middle-aged man, wears black business suit and tie.
Director: Middle-aged man, wears leisure suit, smokes cigar.
2 men: young, dressed casually.
4 actors: dressed in red devil suit.

Gidget: (enters left carrying surfboard) Hi! Where's the beach?
Devil: (seated at desk) Beach? Ha! That's a good one. (Chuckles to himself. Taking a closer look at her) Hey, you're new here aren't you?
Gidget: Yeah, I guess so.
Devil: (pulling out form and pen from desk drawer) Alright. Have a seat. (Gidget sits in chair and places surfboard across arm rest)
Devil: Name?
Gidget: (smiling) Gidget!
Devil: (looking up from form) Gidget?
Gidget: (leaning over desk to speak confidentially to Devil) Well, my real name's Francie Lawrence, but all my friends call me Gidget.
Devil: I see. (writes it down) When and where were you born?
Gidget: Hollywood, California 1946.
Devil: 1946? Impossible! You look like a teenager.
Gidget: I am a teenager. (giggles) Always was and always will be! (swivels around in chair in full circle, almost hitting devil with surfboard) Sorry.
Devil: Cause of death?
Gidget: (stunned) What?
Devil: How and where did you die?
Gidget: Look mister, I don't know what you're talking about. All I know is, I was supposed to meet the gang and go surfing.
Devil: What is the last thing you remember before coming here?
Gidget: I was surfing all by myself because the other kids hadn't shown up yet, when all of sudden a big wave came up behind me and I wiped out.
Devil: (writes on form) Drowned.
Gidget: Drowned? I'm not dead!
Devil: Listen babe, no one gets into Hell unless they die first.
Gidget: (close to tears) Telling me I'm dead is bad enough, but saying I've gone to H-E-L-L . . . All I can say is you're a nasty man! I'm going home!
Devil: I'm afraid you can't do that.
Gidget: (rising from chair, getting hysterical) But why am I here? I led such a pure and wholesome life. (reminiscing) I went to church every Sunday, never kissed a boy on the first date. Why millions of people thought of me as the All-American girl. I thought only really evil people came to Hell to burn and suffer eternally.

Devil: Does it look like I'm burning? That's all propaganda to make people want to go to Heaven. They have a much better advertising campaign than we do. (mimicking announcer) "Go to Heaven and hear the angels sing, talk with the Saints, meet St. Peter at the Golden Gates."
Gidget: But . . .
Devil: (holds up hand to interrupt her) Now don't get me wrong. I'm not saying that none of that is true. Let's just say I'm skeptical . . .
Devil: (after receiving phone call from Lucifer) Excuse me for a moment, I have to step out . . .

Director briskly enters from left, smoking a cigar, followed by 2 men.
Director: Welcome to Hell, boys. Not much to look at is it?
Gidget: (Jumping off desk and running to meet him) B.J. (hugging him) Am I ever glad to see you!
Director: Yeah, yeah, I know. Here's your script. Learn it!
Devil reenters from right, immediately notices director and crosses over to him.
Devil: Who are you?
Director: B.J. Samson's the name, director of all Gidget movies. (flicks cigar ashes on the floor)
Devil: (upset, stamping out ashes)
What are you trying to do, start a fire or something?
Gidget: (runs over to devil) Did Lucifer say anything about me?
Devil: He said you can go to Hell. (others look shocked) To make the movie if that's what you want to do. He thinks it will be good publicity. Even better than the "Exorcist".
Director: I thought this would be a good setting for your next movie. People have had it up to here (puts hand under chin) with your goody-two-shoes image. I can see it now. A perfect follow-up for your last movie, "Gidget Goes to Rome." O.K. here's the plot: Satan kidnaps you and takes you to Hell. You're very scared, but soon you fall in love with a handsome young devil.
Devil: (crossing over to them) She can't be filmed. She's a spirit, remember?
Director: (to men) Pack up. We're going back to Hollywood. We can film it there and get Annette Funicello to play the part of Gidget.
Gidget: But what about my contract?
Director: That's show-biz.
Director and two men start to leave.
Gidget: (sweetly) Oh B.J. I'm afraid you're going out the wrong way. Go out this way. (pointing to the right door leading to hell).
Director: Gee thanks. You're alright.
Gidget (turns to face the devil) See you later. (exits to right)
Devil: (smiling) Sooner than you think
B.J. (to Gidget) You know, you might not be so out of place here after all.
Gidget: I guess there's a little bit of the devil in all of us. (giggles).
Black-out. End of play.

Admirals Surprise Everyone

In Don Fritz's last year as gridiron coach at Admiral King High, his team sent him off with a 5-4-1 mark. After a weak start, the Admirals came into Buckeye Competition with experts not expecting too much from the team. The Admirals suffered a tough opening loss to mighty Fremont Ross and went into Elyria game emotionally low. The Gridders upended talented Elyria 27-0. They came up with three straight one point victories, climaxed by a 14-13 victory over rival Lorain High.

Dear Diary:

September 7th, 1977, the hallowed halls of Admiral King were once again flooded with students. Although the students and faculty didn't know it, this year would be the most memorable.

OCT. 23 — Are you gonna dress-up in the 50's for spirit week? Yeah. It seems as if everyone had the spirit this year. Some teachers said they never before saw such participation from students. Even Mr. Hockman, the electronics teacher, showed his enthusiasm by getting a flat-top hairstyle. The pep rally during spirit week featured six senior guys dressed in old cheerleader uniforms, and wigs, leading the gym filled to capacity to one of the main chants of the season: B.C. Champs! B.C. Champs!! To top the whole week off Admiral King beat their cross town rival Lorain High, 14-13.

ME + HIM

DEC. 10 — What kind of lollipop do you want? I'll take the strawberry/vanilla swirl. It was an exciting day when the school administration put out an all points bulletin on the notorious lollipop gang. Anyone caught harboring an escaped lollipop was sent home.

JAN. 26 — Do you believe we survived the blizzard of 77'-78'. Many of the students who ended up digging their cars out of the parking lot, still don't believe it. Students were rejoicing because they got an unexpected vacation. Even the teachers, though they wouldn't admit it, enjoyed the break.

April 28, 1977, over half the school was absent. An epidemic of flu? No. An epidemic of spring fever. A 1,000 students headed out to Mill Hollow and Findley leaving teachers with empty classrooms and useless class assignments. It was officially senior skip day, but everyone thought they were seniors this year.
